

THE HAIKU – INFO SHEET

Power Folk: highly melodic with immense energy, passion and emotion.

Line-Up

Phil Cooper – Vocals, Guitar
Bert – Drums

Website

www.thehaiku.co.uk
www.myspace.com/thehaiku

Contact

Phil Cooper – 07941 698107
61 Stokehill,
Hilperton,
Trowbridge,
Wilts,
BA14 7TJ
Email: twistedmindz@gmail.com

“The Haiku take the honest and open style of raw acoustic music and mix it with the power of rock music. Audiences are often taken by surprise at the intensity of sound created by the eye-catching line-up of vocals, acoustic guitar and drums”

Basic Info

Band Name: The Haiku

Genre: Power Folk/Indie

Similar Bands: Nizlopi, Turin Brakes, Frank Turner, Jack Johnson

Date Founded: Spring 2006

Based: West Wiltshire/Bath

Discography

Make Make Fire (Demo EP) [released Spring 2006]

Our first recording, very rough demo versions of our earliest songs

Not Enough People Are Wearing Hats (EP) [released Autumn 2006]

Four Track EP recorded at Handsome Llama Studios Frome – mixed by Will Angeloro

Fan The Flames (LP) [released Spring 2008]

Twelve Track Album, recorded at Handsome Llama Studios and at home – mixed by Phil Cooper

Not Quite The Same (EP) [released Spring 2009]

Four Track EP, recorded at 3Sixty Studios, Fulham, mixed by Fraser Smith and mastered at Optimum Studios, Bristol.

For more info contact Phil on 07941 698107

Gig History

100+ Gigs played since May 2006 (including two self organised tours)

Notable Venues include:

- Moles, Bath
- Purple Turtle, Camden
- The Shed, Leicester
- The George, Andover
- Liverpool University
- The Loft, Cambridge
- The Vic, Swindon
- The Regal, Oxford

Upcoming Projects

We will be releasing singles from the latest EP in October and February, before recording a new album for release in Summer 2010.

Our third tour is currently being organised and we are also making a mockumentary about "life with The Haiku".

For more info contact Phil on 07941 698107